

Subscribe

November 2009

Events at Victoria

Two Cheers for Research Tuesday 17 November, 6pm

In his inaugural lecture Professor Terry Stokes will examine the role of research at universities. More

The Financial Reporting Framework. New Direction! Right Direction? Wednesday 18 November, 7.30am

A discussion on the Ministry of Economic Development's Statutory Framework of Financial Reporting discussion document. This Business Links Seminar will be chaired by Geoff Connor, Chief Advisor at the Ministry of Economic Development. Kevin Simpkins will outline the proposed changes, and Ken Warren and Mark Hucklesby will comment on these changes. More

More events at Victoria University. More

More news at Victoria University. More

Welcome to the November Life after Vic newsletter. It is quiet on campus with students taking their exams and winding down for the year.

Victoria and Student Trust commit to partnership

A historic agreement has been signed by Victoria University and the Victoria University of Wellington Students' Association Trust. The Student Trust has committed to contributing $12 million to transform the University's Kelburn Campus. More

Victoria University's Ken Duncum wins Mansfield Prize

Wellington playwright and Director of Scriptwriting at Victoria University's Institute of Modern Letters Ken Duncum is the recipient of the 2010 New Zealand Post Mansfield Prize. More

Accounting graduate appointed Controller and Auditor-General

Victoria University accounting graduate Lyn Provost has recently been appointed Controller and Auditor-General. More

Keeping in touch

If you know of family and friends living overseas, please encourage them to maintain up-to-date contact details so they're able to receive notices and invitations. Alumni can update their own details through the online registry Life after Vic. Why not check your details are correct right now?

We also have an active Victoria University Alumni Facebook group and a Linked In group. These groups are both great ways to keep up-to-date with alumni news or to catch up with old friends. Search for 'Victoria University of Wellington Alumni' from both of these links.