

DEBATE

THAT LIBRARIES ARE OBSOLETE

IN THE AGE OF GOOGLE

8th September 2005

6pm @ National Library
Cnr Molesworth and
Aitken Sts, Wellington

Affirmative:

Ingrid Mason, Epublications Librarian,
Alexander Turnbull Library, National Library of New Zealand.

Paul Reynolds from McGovern and Associates, a web development company.

Negative:

Tim Gordon - from the Improvisors.

Bernard Beckett - Schoolteacher and author for children and teenagers.

Debate Moderator:

Hamish MacEwan, an Information &
Communication Technology consultant.

LIBRARY WEEK, 5-11 SEPTEMBER 2005

